DANIEL & GIDEON

SUMMER STORIES TO

Inspire

I would like to invite all the members of MPPC to join me this summer in looking at two of my favorite characters from the Hebrew scriptures in an effort to see ourselves and our current situation in their adventures.

Beginning on June 3, the Sunday after our new summer worship schedule gets underway, we are taking advantage of being able to offer a pastor-led study at 8:00 am in the Fellowship Hall. I will kick off this series with a look at the narratives of Daniel 1-6 to see how they may instruct us for faithful living in an age when increasingly we are a minority people within the land. Partly because of my name, I suppose, I have always been drawn to the adventures of Daniel when the Hebrews were living in Babylonian exile following the fall of Judah and Jerusalem. I hope we can have some fun in the process and begin to see how it is the stories we tell from our own lives and from the lives of our ancestors in the faith that shape who we are and what we intend to be and do as the people of God.

And then in worship beginning on June 3rd, I will start a four-week sermon series focusing on the adventures of Gideon, one of the Judges of Israel whose life and times are recorded in Judges 6-8. I have always found that sermon series, especially in the summer, enable the Teaching Elder (also known as Pastor) to engage in more effective instruction and education within the church. It also usually helps with attendance as well as people get engaged and interested in the topic under consideration.

I thought of doing a series on the Ten Commandments as I am convinced that we are sorely lacking a moral compass in this land and it is evident from the White House to the houses in which we live, jeopardizing both the church and the nation. However, such a series would take me about three months and you could well have your new Pastor and Head of Staff on board by then! So, while we have the time and opportunity together this summer let's see what we can consider and learn from Daniel and Gideon.

Danny

Missions: What Is “Metanoia” All About?

Integrated & Holistic Community Development

Build Leaders • Establish Quality Housing
Economic Development

When Jesus begins his ministry in the book of Mark, he begins with a one sentence mission statement “The Kingdom of God is coming near” he says, so we are to “repent and believe the good news!” The English word “repent” is the translation for the original Greek word, “metanoia.” We sometimes have connotations of repentance as strictly about feeling guilty about what we have done in the past. “Metanoia” in the New Testament is really about leaving the negative past behind and turning toward a more positive future. In Jesus’ opening words in Mark, engaging in “metanoia” is the first response we should have to the fact that the Kingdom of God has come near to us in the person of Jesus Christ.

Begun in 2003, the Metanoia Community Development Corporation in North Charleston has been working for positive change in some of our region’s most distressed communities. Since its earliest days, Metanoia has partnered with Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church in its ministry. MPPC has provided time, treasure and talents to Metanoia over the years and has seen this “movement of people, rooted in faith” grow significantly through the years.

Metanoia’s approach runs counter to many initiatives intended to help those in need. Rather than just focusing on the problems of distressed communities, Metanoia seeks to discover and grow the quiet assets of these communities. There is a belief that every person and community have strengths that need to be nourished as we move toward God’s Kingdom. When MPPC began working with Metanoia, it was a small after school program. But this mustard seed of a work has grown into an integrated and holistic community development initiative that invests in neighborhood assets to build leaders, establish quality housing and generate economic development.

Metanoia now hosts year-round after school and summer programming for over 100 students in grades 1-12. It constructs new units of affordable housing and repairs homes for low income homeowners unable to make those repairs. It is incubating businesses for youth and adults that create jobs along Reynolds Avenue and is partnering with a local manufacturing company (The Urban Electric Company) to create additional jobs. Metanoia is also working on redeveloping the now vacant Old Chicora Elementary School to house an Early Childhood Education Center, Artists' Studio Space and Non-Profit Office Space. Each of these initiatives is done with community feedback so that Metanoia does work with the communities it serves rather than just to those neighborhoods. "Mount Pleasant Presbyterian Church has been one of the most generous churches to us through the years," says Metanoia CEO, Rev. Bill Stanfield, "we would not be where we are without their faithful and abundant support!"

Blessings of Spring

Good will come to those who are generous and lend freely, who conduct their affairs with justice. – Psalm 112:5

This spring, Hope House is thankful for some unexpected blessings.

One recently came from transplant patients, Diane (a kidney donor) and John Pierpoint (a kidney recipient). Both stayed at Hope Cottage and Hope House following their surgeries and are full of praise for the volunteers and MPPC members who have embraced them so warmly. To show their appreciation, the Pierpoints invited us to a special Tea at their home in Aiken.

Kathy Poff, a Ministry Team member, and I enjoyed meeting 18 of their friends who showered us with a carload of supplies for Hope House as well as other (monetary) gifts.

Even more donations came a few days later — from Hope House volunteers themselves. Caretakers always look forward to our annual gathering, where they get a chance to talk to each other face-to-face instead of just through emails, enjoy homemade treats, and share their extraordinary experiences.

This year's get-together was even more special, as it featured a silent auction of treasures donated by long-time MPPC member Manfred Brauch, who recently moved to Pennsylvania. Everything from crystal and china to silver and pottery was up for bid. And by the end of the evening, $701 had been raised for Hope House!

If you're wondering how you might support this ministry, check out the "Adopt-A-Day" program. It's a chance to acknowledge a family member or friend with an honorary, congratulatory, or memorial gift.

While it costs about $50 a day to operate Hope House, any gift is welcome and it's tax deductible. For more information, contact Elizabeth Grantham at (843) 345-0828 or at elizabethforexchange@gmail.com.

From all of us at Hope House, our heartfelt thanks to all of you who have given so generously.

11:00 am – Traditional worship, Sanctuary

Contemporary worship (The Net), Fellowship Hall

Arts Camp: August 6-8

Coming up, our 11th annual Arts Camp for Children on August 6-8 from 5:30-7:30 pm will enrich our children and all the volunteers. Every year brings different aspects of art to life in new and exciting ways. Our theme is taken from an energetic song from our Scottish Christian friends on the Isle of Iona, "Sing to God, with Joy and Gladness" (Psalm 147). The children will rotate through 3 rooms – art, drama and music. Children who have just completed Kindergarten through the 5th grade are welcome to attend. Registration is limited to 60 children. So, sign up quickly! Register online or at the church. Deadline to register is July 30th.

Schedule

5:30 – 6:00 pm – dinner

6:00 – 7:30 – rotation of the children through three areas

- music/rhythm – experimenting with drums and chimes and singing fun songs
- story/drama – experiencing drama including acting out Bible stories with costumes
- arts/crafts – exploring the gift of visual art

Contemporary Worship Sundays, 11:00 am Fellowship Hall

On Sundays in the Fellowship Hall, we offer an alternative worship service. The comfortable chairs and casual atmosphere are enjoyed by all ages and seem to work especially well with young families. Grab a cup of coffee to enjoy during fellowship and worship. Sing songs old and new led by a talented band of people from within MPPC. You'll hear the same scripture and sermon as our other services, but you'll see it on a screen via live feed.

The eclectic music is made up of modern popular music (Christian and secular), classic hymns and prayers, and songs from other parts of the world. Our sounds are influenced by music we hear every day from groups like Mumford and Sons to Jazz Trios, and many other genres. We are creative in worship without leaving anything out or watering it down. Most of all, we are people who just enjoy spending time worshipping God together in the midst of our hectic lives.
