INTRODUCING NICOLE

Rev. Dr. Nicole Partin Abdnour comes to us from Palma Ceia Presbyterian Church in Tampa, Florida where she currently serves as Senior Associate Pastor. She has served for eighteen (18) years at Palma Ceia Presbyterian, a congregation of more than 2300 members.

As Senior Associate, Nicole serves alongside Rev. Dr. John T. DeBevoise leading worship, moderating session, encouraging and developing faith formation, participating in community life, providing pastoral care, and working collaboratively with staff to carry out the vision of Palma Ceia Presbyterian.

HER MINISTRY

She received her Bachelor of Arts in English from Stetson University in 2000 and her Masters of Divinity and Master of Arts in Christian Education from Union Presbyterian Seminary in 2004.

In 2022, Nicole received her Doctor of Ministry from Candler School of Theology at Emory University

Nicole began her ministry as the Associate Pastor for Christian Education and Youth at St. Charles Avenue Presbyterian Church in New Orleans, Louisiana, a church of approximately 1300 members.

She served St. Charles Avenue from May 2004 through June 2006. Her first call was cut short when Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans, displacing her from her church. From there, God's plan took Nicole to Tampa, Fla where she was called as the Associate Pastor for Congregational Care. Over time, her role at Palma Ceia Presbyterian shifted to her current call as Senior Associate Pastor.

HER FAITH

Nicole's faith statement exemplifies a true appreciation and calling to ministry for the one triune God. She professes her belief that, "through God all things are created good. All of us are equally beautifully and wonderfully made in God's image. We however, turn from God. We not only act out and harm one another, but the whole of God's creation. Despite this God responds to us with love, justice and mercy, maintaining the covenant God has made with God's people throughout time. God is the God of History, the God of our Present and the God of our future, revealed to us through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit in the world and in Scripture."
